

ILV NEWSLETTER

February 2009

Letter from ILV Executive Chairperson

Dear ILV Members,

It has been my privilege for the past year to be the Chairperson of the International Ladies of Vietnam. In this time I have enjoyed the opportunity of working with many interesting and talented ladies on both the Committee and within the membership as a whole.

Several members have volunteered to showcase their countries at coffee mornings and we have enjoyed sharing their enthusiasm for their home country and culture. The ILV executive looks forward to having more members share special tidbits of information and cultures that make up the diverse tapestry of our group.

Over the past year many of us have enjoyed learning new games and sharing time with friends we have met at ILV functions. The outings have been interesting and diverse (from movies to cooking classes – and from learning how lacquer ware is made to making costume jewellery for ourselves). Part of the fun of being on the ILV board is planning the outings and parties for the membership and knowing that a team of enthusiastic ladies is usually available to help.

We have welcomed another 300+ members to the International Ladies of Vietnam in 2008 and have hosted an average of 60 women for coffee each Thursday morning. A Quiz Night, several Couples Drinks nights and the Annual Christmas Party have all been supported by members and guests.

Being Chairlady of such an active group has been challenging but very worthwhile. I have made friends and developed skill sets I didn't know I had. I have been privileged to work with a dedicated team, who are both committed and fun. Like any International Ladies Group, we have had members leave, or step aside during the year, but we have had new volunteers step in and the transitions were often relatively seamless. The 2009 elections at the end of February will see a number of the current Committee members running for positions again and we hope many new faces will join us.

In this newsletter there is an outline of the ILV positions and the amount of time that you should be able to devote each month. The committee has added another Vice-Chair position to the Executive Committee bringing the Executive Committee positions to 6. We became aware this past year that the availability of travel opportunities frequently left the Committee without enough bodies to do the quality of job that we wanted for our membership.

The ILV Executive Committee is very approachable and we would be happy to add your name to the many volunteers who make up the core of ladies who organize, greet, hostess, and administer the ILV Club.

The International Ladies of Vietnam have many activities which present the opportunity to meet other members, and we are always happy to add more if the need should arise. Our website at www.ilvietnam.org, provides updated information about current ILV functions (both daytime and evening) and our monthly newsletter is available to the membership online as well as in printed format at the coffee mornings.

I plan to take a less active role on the Executive Committee in 2009, however I still look forward to continuing to enjoy the friendship of the many ladies I have gotten to know over the past 18 months I have been in Vietnam. (And I hope you are among them).

Committee membersJob Descriptions

Chair Lady - Executive Position The Chair Lady is the official face of the International Ladies of Vietnam. As the name implies she chairs any meeting of the committee and is our representative at meetings and functions outside ILV. During coffee mornings she is often the first person members approach with questions or problems. Time requirements – It is important to be at as many coffee mornings as possible and monthly committee meetings and up to 1 hour per week on phone calls, emails, etc.

Vice Chair – Executive Position The Vice Chair assists the Chair Lady and acts in the Chair Lady's place if she cannot attend. Time requirements – Attendance at coffee mornings, 30 minutes per week outside of meeting times and attendance at monthly committee meetings.

Treasurer – Executive Position The Treasurer is responsible for the finances of the ILV. She keeps detailed records of incoming and outgoing monies and balances them against the cash on hand which she keeps in her possession. She makes payments on behalf of ILV. She delivers the Financial Report at Committee meetings and at the Annual General Meeting. She liaises with the coffee morning venue re numbers and payment. Time requirements – attendance at coffee mornings to receive invoices, supply Reception with change etc, 30 minutes per week to balance the books and 1 hour at end of month to balance the books, write a report for the monthly committee meeting and attend monthly committee meeting.

Treasurer – Executive Position - performs treasurer's responsibilities in her absence

Secretary – Executive Position The Secretary takes minutes of each Committee meeting, writes them up and distributes them (via email) to the Committee members. She collates and redistributes Committee Member Reports (via email) before each Committee Meeting. She is also responsible for any incoming or outgoing correspondence.

Membership and Link Lady Coordinator The Membership Coordinator is responsible for keeping track of new and existing memberships. She collects the paperwork from the Newcomers Table each week in order to update the membership records. She is also responsible for maintaining a group of existing members who she "links" with new members to help them with their transition to life in Vietnam. Time requirements – Membership takes about 45 minutes per week and Link Ladies about 30 minutes per week, plus writing a report for and attending the monthly committee meetings.

Newcomers Table Coordinator (2) The Newcomers Table Coordinator is responsible for maintaining a roster of members to staff the newcomers table, to fill out the paperwork associated with joining ILV. She is in charge of the Black Book, which is the record of the ILV Membership Numbers. Time requirements – 15 minutes before and after coffee mornings to set up and pack up, 1 hour per month printing forms and updating membership information, writing report for, and attending monthly committee meetings.

Guide Book Editor (2) The Guide Book Editor collates, edits and is responsible for the printing of the Guide Book on an as needs basis.

Discount Coordinators (Two Positions) Maintains the validity of current discount vendors in the Guide Book and signs up new vendors, either through ILV member recommendation or their own initiative. Time requirements – 1 day per month physically checking to see if shops are still at addresses and getting paper work signed, 1 hour per week collating paperwork and emailing changes to Guide Book Coordinator, write report for and attend monthly committee meetings.

Reception Coordinator (2) Coordinates the Reception Desk Roster, usually 2-3 months in advance. She maintains supplies of stationery for the desk. Is on hand each coffee morning (with 2 rostered helpers) to welcome guests and members and collect entrance fees and to make the ladies aware of any sign up lists for outings, lunches etc that are kept at the desk. At the end of the morning she counts the numbers in the sign in book and balances the money against this figure which is then handed over to the Treasurer. Time requirements – 15 – 20 minutes before start of coffee morning to set up Reception Desk, 20 minutes per week to organize the roster, buy stationery, write report for, and attend monthly committee meetings.

Library Coordinator (2) Coordinates the Library Roster for each week's coffee morning. She is responsible for maintaining the numbering system of the ILV library. She allocates new books numbers and is also responsible for physically maintaining the books and purging their numbers when necessary. Time requirements – write report for, and attend monthly committee meetings.

Newsletter Coordinator (2 positions) She is responsible for collating, editing and publishing the monthly newsletter. Time requirements – 1 hour per month doing calendar and layout.

Web Site Coordinator Is responsible for updating information on the web site and liaising with the web site designer. Also replies to mail sent to ILV via the links on the web site. Time requirements – 1 hour per week on site and write report for and attend monthly committee meetings.

Guest Speaker Coordinator Finds and coordinates speakers on a variety of topics of interest to members on a regular basis (currently twice per month). She arranges for a small gift for any speaker who is not representing a business or organization, the cost of which is reimbursed by ILV. She is responsible for making arrangements with the speaker, looking after the speaker on the day of the talk and liaising with the venue staff if any equipment is needed (e.g. Microphones). She is also responsible, as necessary, for keeping the venue informed of any speakers who are not ILV members.

Notice Board Coordinator Is responsible for deciding what is eligible for the notice board and tables and stamps eligible notices. Set up and packs up the Notice Board and tables and makes sure that the information displayed is of the correct size and is current. Also sets out the trays of business cards and flyers. Time requirements – 15 minutes before and after each coffee morning, write report for and attend monthly committee meeting.

Outings Coordinator Plans and coordinates monthly outings, e.g. Pottery trip, art gallery tour. Time Requirements 2 hours per month on planning, plus attending the outing, writing a report for and attending the monthly committee meeting.

Special Functions Coordinator Is liaison for subcommittees formed to coordinate special functions e.g. a cocktail party or the Christmas lunch.

Activities coordinator –maintains communication w/ individual activity hostesses and advises web and newsletter of venue, date, contact information changes

Recipe of the month.....Carrying on the Malaysian Theme

MALAYSIAN SATAY

Ingredients:

- 1 lb. meat- chicken, beef or pork
- 2 cloves of garlic
- 1 cup shallots
- 1 teaspoon coriander seeds
- 1 teaspoon cumin seeds
- 1/4 inch piece turmeric root
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/4 cup evaporated milk
- 1 tablespoon cooking oil
- about 35 bamboo sticks

Method:

Cut meat into small thin pieces.

Grind together until very fine: shallots, garlic, coriander seeds, cumin seeds & turmeric.

Combine ground spices with salt & sugar.

Season meat with the ground spices and let marinate.

When you are ready to grill soak the bamboo sticks in water so they won't burn, skewer the meat with the sticks, don't overcrowd.

Grill satay sticks over a charcoal fire (barbecue grill), basting occasionally with evaporated milk combined with oil. Or, for the brush, use the head of lemon grass, smash and flatten to resemble a brush.

PEANUT SAUCE

Ingredients:

- 8 dried chillies (soaked until soft). Remove the seeds if you do not like it too hot.
- 2 cloves of garlic
- 1/2 cup shallots
- 4 candle-nuts or substitute with macadamia nuts.
- 1/4 cup cooking oil
- 1 cup peanuts (finely

- ground)
- 1/4 cup thin tamarind juice (get the tamarind paste, add a little warm water and squeeze the juice, strain)
- 1/4 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1 cup water.
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- salt to taste

Method:

Grind together until very fine: chillies, garlic, shallots & candle-nuts.

In a wok or saucepan, fry ground ingredients in hot oil for 5 minutes.

Stir in ground peanuts and tamarind juice.

Bring to the boil

Add diluted milk and salt to taste and bring to the boil again.

Serve with satay.

“The fragrant wafts of satay meat over a grill is unbeatable”

“The key is to marinate the meat for a long time, at least overnight and perhaps even up to three days. Also remember to slice the meat thinly”

February Book Club

Did You Know?

In the 1500s:

Most people got married in June because they took their yearly bath in May, and still smelled pretty good by June. However, they were starting to smell, so brides carried a bouquet of flowers to hide the body odor. Hence the custom today of carrying a bouquet when getting married.

Baths consisted of a big tub filled with hot water. The man of the house had the privilege of the nice clean water, then all the other sons and men, then the women and finally the children. Last of all the babies. By then the water was so dirty you could actually lose someone in it. Hence the saying, "Don't throw the baby out with the Bath water" ..

AusCham's "Big Day Out"

Looking for Volunteers

Saturday 4th April.....2:00pm onwards

This is a fantastic family day out with lots of activities for kids throughout the day in the Kid's Area; there will also be the Mini Olympic Area, the Charity Area with interactive activities and the Wet & Wild Pool.

There will also be lots of great live music during the event in the Outback Pub and on the Main Stage and there will be loads of delicious food & beverage stalls serving throughout the whole event. We are expecting about 2,000 guests again this year!!

The Big Day Out concept remains the same as the previous Australia Day event, where tickets are purchased and then everything in the park is all inclusive.

We are looking for people to assist with the planning of the event and also help out on the day. AusCham's events are only a success because of the support we receive from the community, we hope we can count on your participation to make this year's Big Day Out a truly fantastic experience!!
